Hi Clive

Great news! This should stop all the queries.

We do not have any other option on restricting a thesis on EThOS, but I have added a note to our records to explain that the thesis will be available in your special collections reading room. If anyone queries why it is restricted we can pass this information on.

Cheers Sue

Hi Sue

just to confirm what I wrote to — a copy of the thesis is being catalogued right now!!

We don't have permission to digitise, we won't interlend, and in fact, as author permission was required for quoting or reproducing in 1984 we won't be allowing any digital copying either.

I was just wondering though whether that would still mean you keep a restricted access note on it − I don't suppose you have an option that sounds less secretive but maybe means the same!! ©

many thanks

Clive

Hi Sue

sorry, I appreciate this is a bit of a pain. In our defence, it all seems to have gone wrong when the UL theses were repatriated – and we never had a copy to begin with.

I did think about suggesting myself that the BL shadow the record but we are hoping to get a copy from Taiwan. Although we are not sure what to do with it if we do. I don't know if you know or not, but Ing-Wen Tsai is the current President of Taiwan so some Chinese journalists are making a big deal about her thesis being missing ...

Would you mind leaving it for now? If you do get any more requests please do just send them straight over to us and we will get back to you shortly.

many thanks

Clive

Dear Colleague

https://ethos.bl.uk/OrderDetails.do?uin=uk.bl.ethos.652034

We have received several queries relating to the above thesis, including an FOI enquiry. Sara Gould from BL has been in touch with Jo Adams-Lingwood. Please will you let me know if you wish us to remove the entire record from EThOS.

Thanks and regards

Sue
