Hi Clive,

Please find the statement below.

I feel we should just confirm her award and share a copy of the calendar as proof as originally discussed.

Media Statement:

An LSE spokesperson said:

“University of London and LSE records confirm Tsai Ing-wen was awarded a PhD in Law in 1984.

“Unfortunately, the LSE Library has never held a copy of Tsai Ing-wen’s thesis. All PhDs from that period were awarded via the University of London and would have been sent first to their Senate House Library.

“We have corresponded with the University of London about the thesis and extensive checks have been made. Senate House Library are presently unable to find their copy.”

/END

As background

I have attached a scan of the relevant entry in the LSE Calendar of 1985/86, which acts an official record of awards and degrees given to LSE students in 1984.

Many thanks,
Charlotte

Hi All

this from Dr Shih suggests Charlotte’s original draft for the press is probably good to go – with maybe the addition of the information that a copy is being provided.

Is it ok to copy her in and run it by her?

thanks
