Thanks Charlotte. I am about to send the response to the Taiwan People's Daily now.

Just to add, are we ok to stop sending replies with the previous form of words. I think it's worth ensuring we include the extra information confirming that Dr Tsai did receive her PhD.

Best wishes,

Danny

Subject: RE: Ing-Wen Tsai's PhD thesis

Hi all,

I've had a chat with Danny and we will contact the website to request they take down Ruth's name and share the below statement with them:

An LSE spokesperson said:

“University of London and LSE records confirm Tsai Ing-wen was awarded a PhD in Law in 1984.

“Unfortunately, the LSE Library has never held a copy of Tsai Ing-wen's thesis. All PhDs from that period were awarded via the University of London and would have been sent first to their Senate House Library.

“We have corresponded with the University of London about the thesis and extensive checks have been made. Senate House Library are presently unable to find their copy.”

As background

I have attached a scan of the relevant entry in the LSE Calendar of 1985/86, which acts an official record of awards and degrees given to LSE students in 1984.

Many thanks,
Charlotte
