Thanks Danny.

Interest coming our way appears to have tailed off. I am assuming this is not the case with the Library?

Subject: University of London statement on Tsai certificate

Dear all,

To keep you updated, the University of London are now responding to enquiries regarding the certificate. It confirms, in the abstract, that the certificate is legitimate.

University of London:

“Any replacement diploma for an academic award that was originally made 20 or more years ago will carry the signature of the University of London’s Vice-Chancellor who is in post at the time of the certificate being re-issued.
