Dear Mark,

Yes, it still makes sense to send the standard reply. The enquirers continue to be focused on petty points and never seem to be satisfied.

The London School of Economics and Political Science and the University of London can categorically confirm that Dr Tsai Ing-Wen completed her thesis and was correctly awarded a PhD in Law in 1984.

Dr Tsai Ing-wen recently provided the LSE Library with a facsimile copy of the thesis, 'Unfair trade practices and safeguard actions'. This is available to view in the LSE library reading room upon request."

Best wishes,

Danny

Colleagues, greetings

Another query about the Taiwanese President's PhD. Danny, I presume the stock reply will suffice?

Andy – you will see that there is a question about how we would record a Taiwanese student's nationality on the student record in 1980 – Republic of China or Taiwan? An interesting question. Do you know the answer?

Thanks,

MTT
