Did I not tell you?

She came in at about 5.20pm earlier this week and did her usual stuff... and then gave me and Charlotte a bar of v dark Lindt chocolate at the end.

(I felt pretty bad as I had started to get really tetchy with her).

Dear Daniel,

I hope you like 85% cocoa chocolate; it's healthier though bitter.

Sorry to bother you again.

(1) I have received quite a few inquiries in Chinese about President Tsai's PhD certificate. Please may I have your response to this inquiry;

(2) Also, I have received a question in Chinese: Why the LSE uses the spokesperson in response to those academic inquiries?

Many thanks!

Wish you a lovely weekend!
