

From: Winterstein,J
To: O'Connor,D
Subject: Re: Request for information
Date: 03 October 2019 09:51:48

---

Thanks Danny, I guess conspiracy theory lovers have to get their stories from somewhere but what a pain.

Jess

On 3 Oct 2019, at 09:45, O'Connor,D <D.O'Connor@lse.ac.uk> wrote:

Hi Jess.

This is the individual stirring up a lot of the nonsense. His blog is basically a conspiracy theory website.

While I don't want to keep the nonsense going, it may be that we have this information that we can share in a very dry way

Thanks,

Danny

---

From: Winterstein,J
Sent: 03 October 2019 08:51
To: O'Connor,D <D.O'Connor@lse.ac.uk>
Subject: Fwd: Request for information

Hi Danny

The story that will not die! If you'd like me to get back to him could you send me our latest statement to pass on?

Many thanks
Jess

Begin forwarded message:

From: [REDACTED]
Date: 2 October 2019 at 23:56:14 BST
To: j.winterstein@lse.ac.uk
Subject: Request for information

I am working on an article about the controversy surrounding Republic of China in-exile President Tsai Ing-wen's LSE graduate thesis. Ms. Tsai filed her 1984 thesis with the LSE Library in 2019 and that has generated much public interest in Taiwan. The name of the thesis is "Unfair Trade Practices and Safeguard Actions."

My questions, for publication, are:

- 1) What is the name and degree of Tsai Ing-wen's LSE Advisor?
- 2) What are the names of the thesis Examiners?
- 3) What is the date of the thesis oral review?
- 4) What is the date of the Examiner's signatures of approval?

If you are not the correct person to handle this information request please forward to the appropriate individual.

Thank you for your attention to this request.

